

MEN WITH VISION

Join us for two exciting activities!

Campground Work Days: April 10-11, 2019

Annual Mission Retreat: April 12-13, 2019

- Learn how to become involved in missions. You'll hear stories of what God is doing through missions around the world! The fellowship is always great! Bring a friend!
- Retreat cost is $30. It includes three meals, lodging and an honorarium

Men With Vision is an association of World Gospel Mission that emphasizes praying, practicing and promoting missions. The organization is also affiliated with Indian Springs Holiness Campmeeting.

Work Days: Wednesday, April 10 and Thursday, April 11.

Meet on the Campground. Winky will assign our work projects and repairs for two days.

President Steve Luce says, "Men With Vision's faithful assistance on the campground saves Indian Springs a lot of money! Their talents and labor are a huge contribution to us each year. The Lord blesses our meal times and evenings with meaningful fellowship."

Mission Retreat Speakers

John Muehleisen: John and Beth are career missionaries with WGM in Uganda. Their recent projects include training African evangelists, church planters and other missionaries to have a more effective ministry.

Billy Coppedge: Billy and Joanna are WGM missionaries in Uganda. Billy has completed his Doctoral program. He has learned special "story telling" skills for sharing the Gospel. He and his family plan to return to Uganda.

Dr. Allan Coppedge: Al is a retired professor from Asbury Theological Seminary. He is an effective preacher and retreat speaker. He serves God by promoting the Gospel through discipleship training and missions.

Jim Smith: Jim serves the Lord through World Gospel Mission (WGM) as Northeast Area representative, a missionary coach and Men With Vision coordinator.
