Your life can be transformed by the power of the Holy Spirit!

Epworth by the Sea, St. Simons Island, Georgia, is a premier United Methodist conference center located on the banks of the historic Frederica River. It offers lodging, meals, lovely walking paths and quiet places for reflection and worship. Named for John and Charles Wesley's childhood home, Epworth by the Sea is known for its Christian atmosphere and friendly fellowship where many have drawn closer to the Lord.

Our retreat weekend for men and women will be dedicated to guided and deliberate prayer for our families, our churches and our communities. Doors open Friday afternoon, March 6, 2020, for Registration. The first session begins after dinner on Friday night. Our final session concludes Sunday morning, March 8. We will have lunch together before departure. Stacey Wood from Powder Springs, Georgia, will be our worship leader.
